To everything there is a season,
And a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down,
and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time
to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.

Development of Classroom Instruction

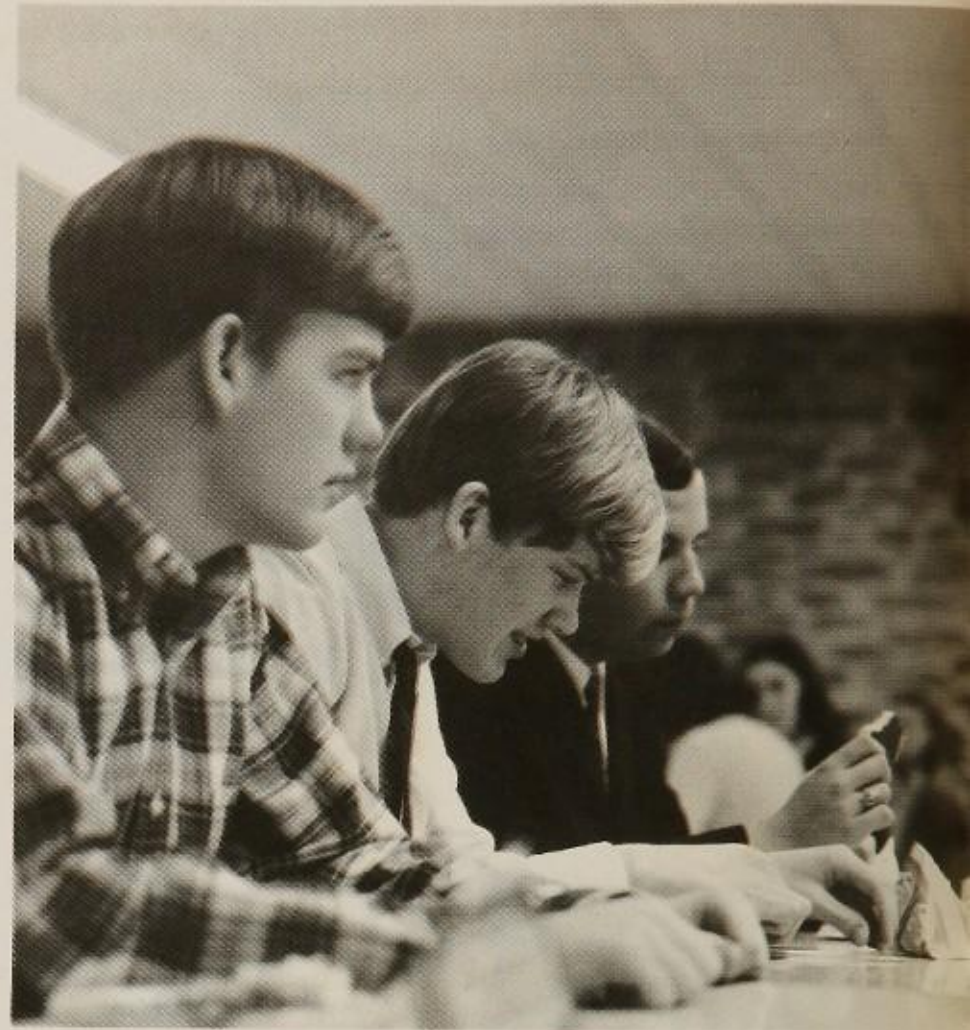

Towson's Class of 1916 contained only four students. In 1966, approximately 450 students were graduated. During these fifty years, modern facilities and teaching methods have developed to accommodate a larger student body.

Of Activities

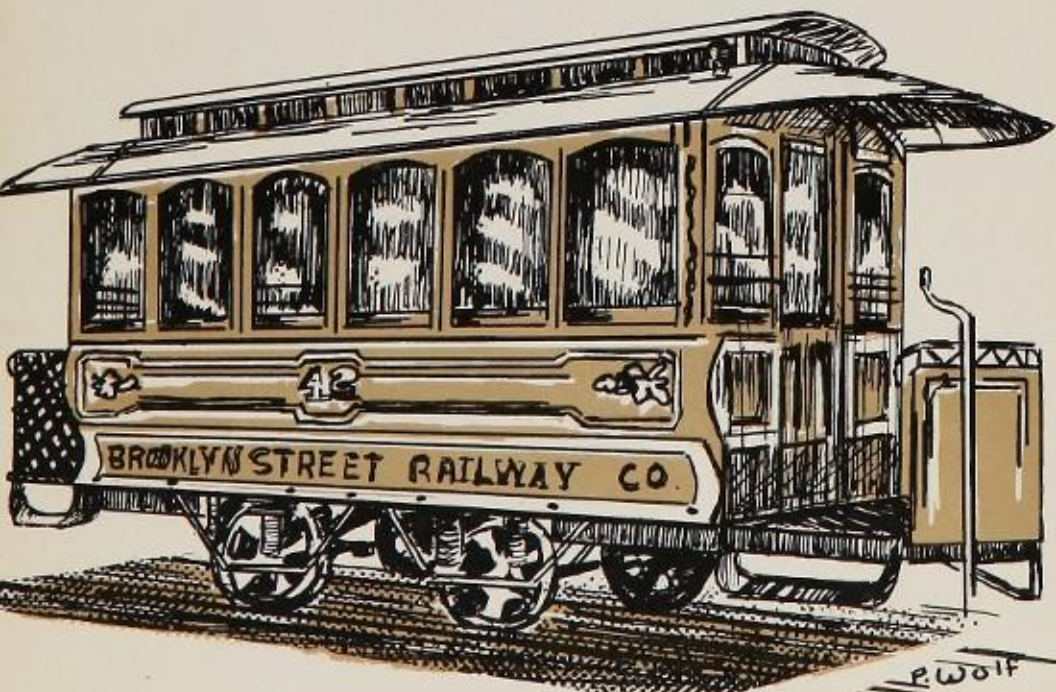

"The times they are a changin'" and student interests are changing also. In place of the fox trot and Charleston, the frug and watusi are now the rage. The conveniences of this modern age grant the student more time to engage in after-school activities.

Advances in Transportation

Since 1916 the means of transportation have also progressed. Hondas and sports cars on municipal highways now replace the horses and trolley cars that once transported students to school.

20 Years

In Appreciation

For twenty years, Mr. W. Horace Wheeler has competently served as principal of Towson High School. He has taken an active interest in the expansion of the school's size and curriculum. Mr. Wheeler's affection for his students and pride in their accomplishments account for his popularity. Always willing to lend a hand, he never attempts to dominate our affairs. In all school business he maintains a good-naturedness and sense of humor that delight everyone associated with him. The sight of Mr. Wheeler wearing a jaunty plaid cap while directing student traffic is familiar. And, with the same genial attitude, he skillfully conducts his administrative tasks. We are happy to acknowledge our appreciation to Mr. Wheeler for his twenty dedicated years of service to Towson.

Mr. Wheeler dictates a letter to Mrs. Hardin.

For twenty years Mr. Wheeler has been the Principal of Towson High School.

The Administration

Under the direction of Mr. W. Horace Wheeler, the Administrative Staff regulates all aspects of education at Towson High School. During the course of a busy year, Mr. Wheeler, as principal, efficiently performs numerous supervisory duties. Both vice principals, Miss Mary Litsinger and Mr. Alfred Marsilio, carry out necessary responsibilities. Miss Litsinger spends most of her time checking attendance problems, while Mr. Marsilio executes the tasks concerning scheduling and student discipline. As Administrative Assistant, Mr. Dennis Blizzard manages all problems relating to the cafeteria and bus transportation. Mrs. Bowerman, Mrs. Burkhard, Mrs. Hardin, and Mrs. Loeffler complete essential office work and maintain the school records.

Mr. Marsilio handles problems of student discipline and scheduling.

Miss Litsinger executes duties concerning truancy and attendance.

Office personnel pause for a break in the course of a busy day.

Mr. Blizzard puts his "John Hancock" on another administrative edict.

Office Efficiency

Mrs. Hardin willingly helps the students and faculty with their problems.

"May I have a late slip?"

Handling phone calls is only one of the many jobs which make up a day in the office.

Full Day's Work

Mrs. Burkhard always has information at her fingertips.

Another college transcript receives conscientious treatment from Mrs. Bowerman.

Mrs. Loeffler faces many complex problems during the day.

*I*n Dedication

With sincere admiration we dedicate this year's SIDELIGHTS to Miss Mary A. Litsinger. When she retires this year, she leaves behind a record of devoted service in the field of education. After graduating Phi Beta Kappa from Goucher College, she received her Master's Degree in English from Radcliffe College. Her career began with a teaching position at Ellicott City High School. Then, she came to Baltimore County, first as a teacher at Sparks High School and later as a vice principal at both Sparks and Towson-town Junior High School. In 1952 she came to Towson High as vice principal.

Miss Litsinger has pursued her duties with quiet tact and resourcefulness. In her relationship with the students she has been kind and understanding. Regardless of the seriousness of our problems she has managed to give us a sense of direction. Perhaps most important of all, Miss Litsinger has helped our sense of values because of the standards of personal integrity which she has always maintained. We know that both present and former students share our admiration for Miss Litsinger and our gratitude for the help she has given all of us through the years.

Mr. Rust decides which course to attack first.

The Class of 1966

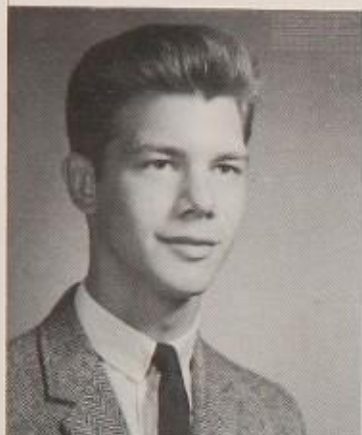

Segall-Majestic distributes pictures to eager seniors.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS—Sue Glover, Secretary; Dave Owens, Vice-president; Dan Fromme, President; Barbara Arnold, Treasurer.

The senior lives in a world of past and future. Behind him are twelve years of education and friendship. Ahead of him are the possibilities and challenges of the future. His year marks not only the culmination of one phase of social and intellectual activity but also the beginning of another phase. But whether his plans include college or not, he begins a way of life different from the one he leaves behind.

This year's class offered its members various activities. In the fall the class picnicked. After winning the Canned Foods Drive, it held a soiree, a display of senior talent. It later opened the doors for a pizza party. The social climax of the year came during June Week, when the nature of events varied from the extreme casualness of a barbecue to the formality of a Senior Prom.

The Pizza Party

The Picnic

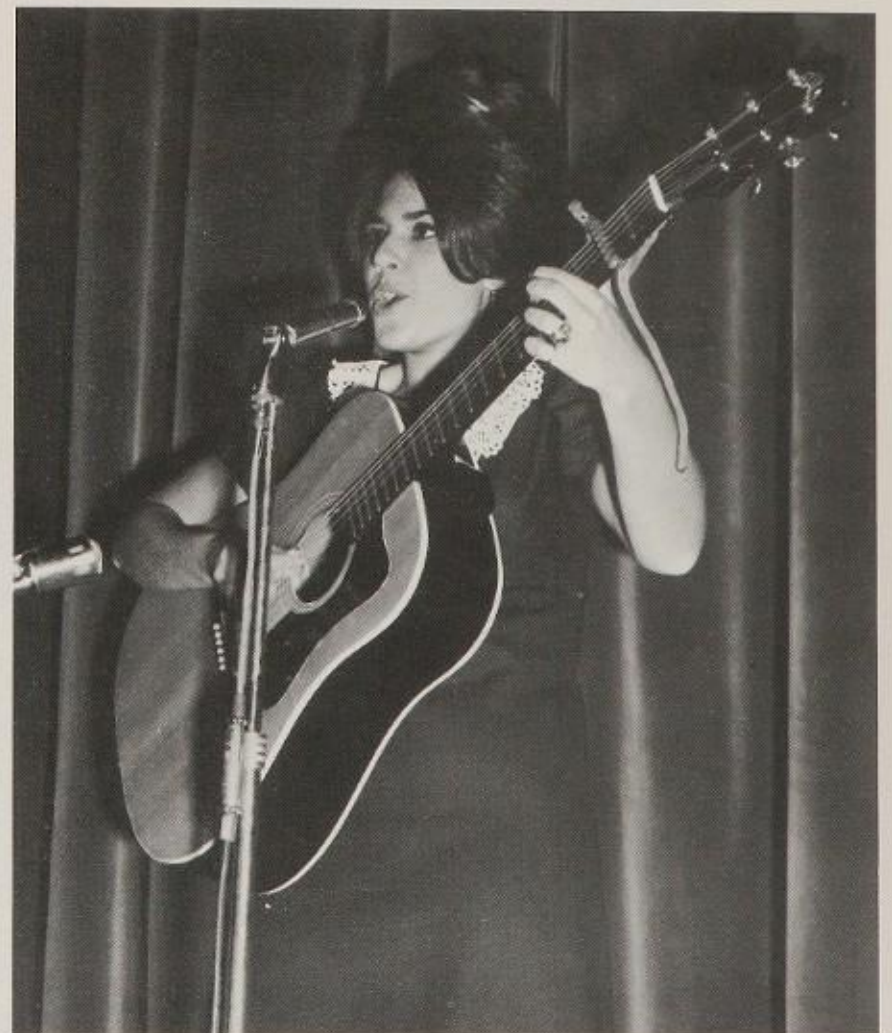

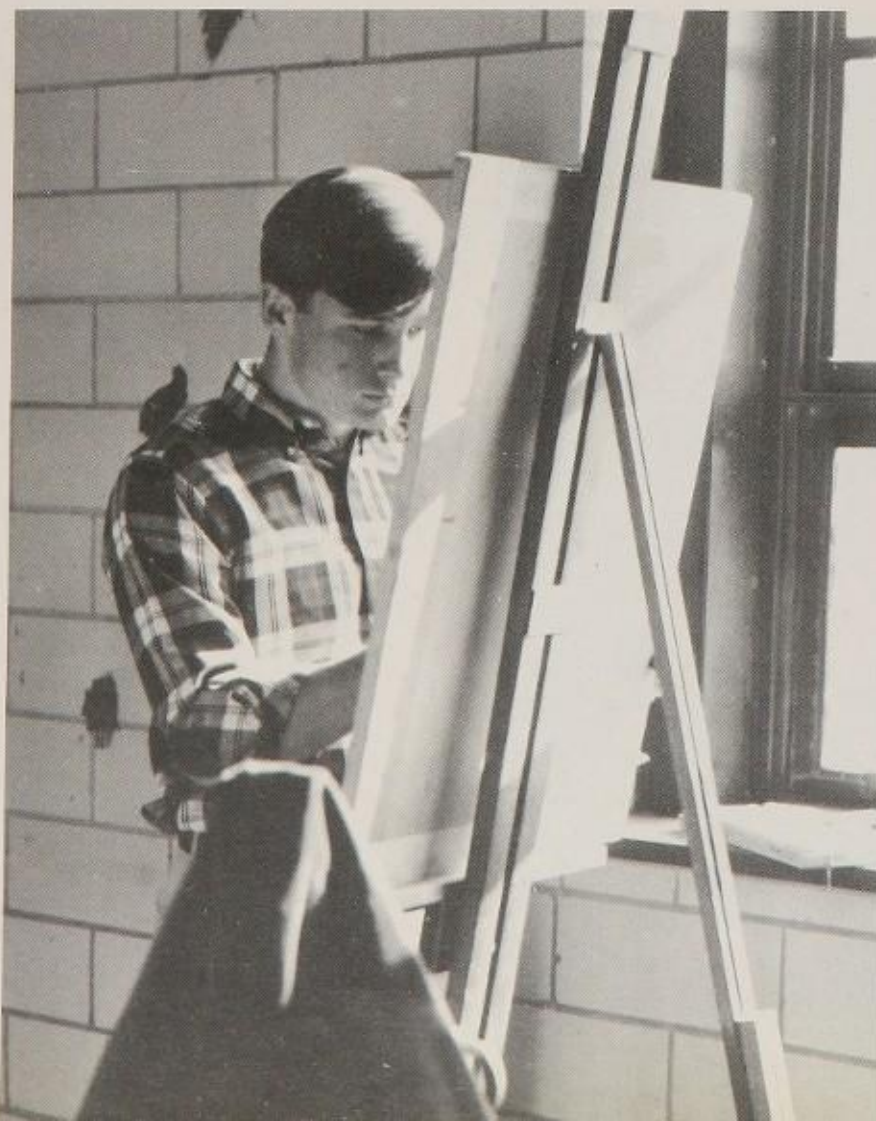

The Lobby

The Lunchroom

The Senior Soirée, the annual display of senior talent was presented this year with a wide variety of acts. Seniors and their parents were treated to singing, dancing, comedy, and piano acts. The Soiree also expanded its scope this year to include the work of seniors talented in the field of art.

Diane Kohler signs up to lend a helping hand.

Scenes of the Senior Year

The year's activities culminate in graduation and the Senior Prom.

After twelve long years it's almost within my grasp.

Taking advantage of a senior privilege, upperclassmen linger in their lobby.

Girls in the commercial course learn to use time-saving devices.

Irma Wambach mimeographs a test for her next class.

"Scalpel, please!"

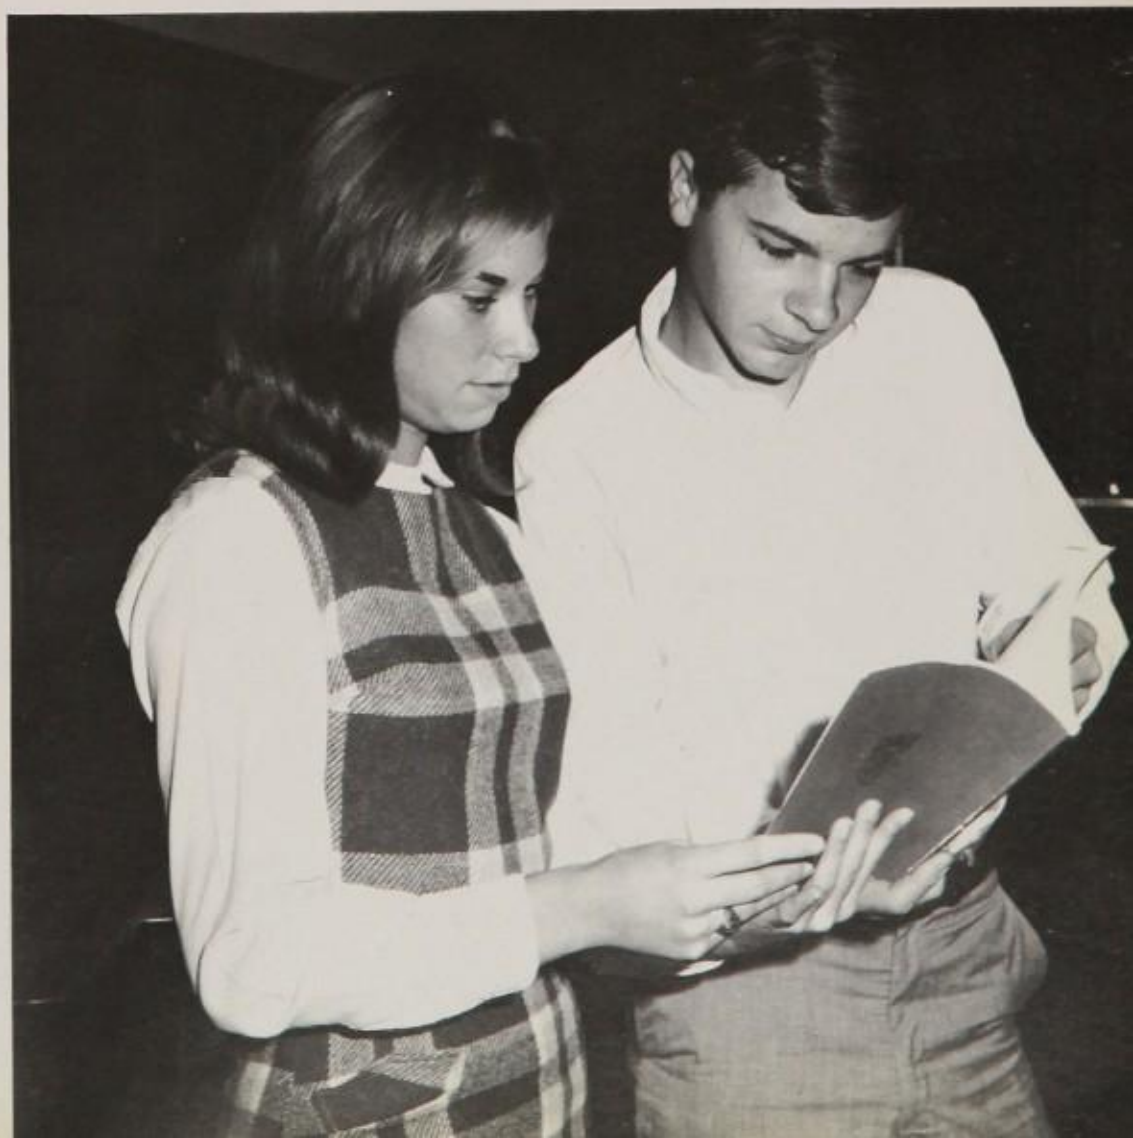

Tom Dickinson finds drafting a breeze!

Striving in All Fields

Thinking of future plans, Christy McDonnell and Don Barnett examine a college catalogue.

The Class of 1967

Two juniors exchange rings at the Ring Dance.

Future Madame Curies experiment in the chemistry lab.

"Damn the torpedoes! Full speed ahead!"

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS—Ken Cook, Treasurer; Pete Garner, President; Carol Walten, Vice-president; Cheryl Wehrenberg, Secretary.

In the junior year, students begin to form coherent patterns of thought and action. Juniors show more interest in school affairs and start to plan for the future as they gain a greater perspective on life. Academically, classwork and homework become more challenging.

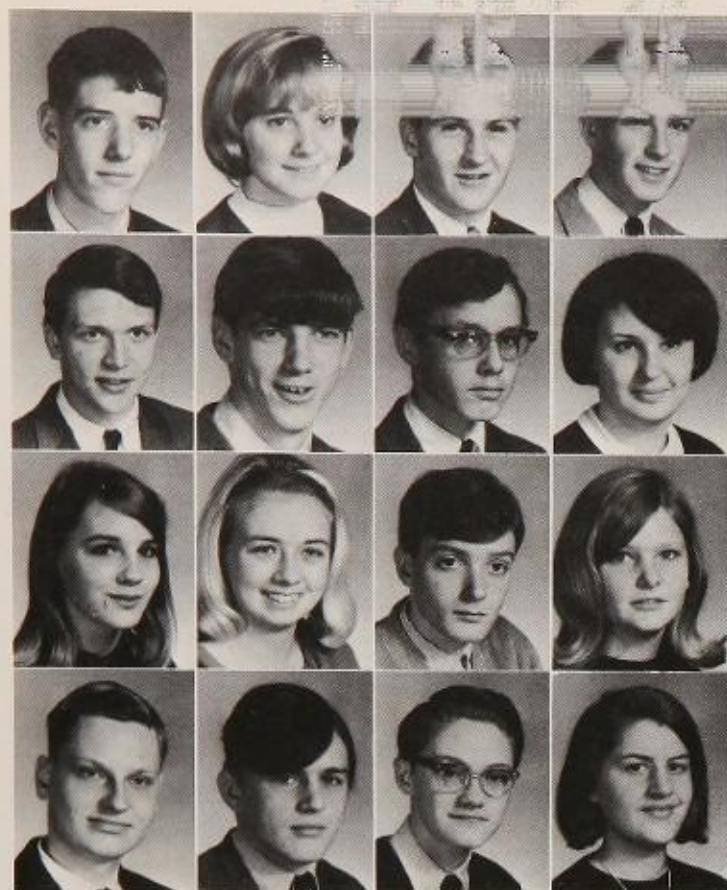

The class has sponsored several traditional affairs this year. In November, the juniors officially became upperclassmen at the Junior Ring Dance. Early in May, the class sponsored the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

Biology students contemplate the wonders of nature.

"You didn't forget the ring, did you?"

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS—Jack Tuttle, Vice-president; Dale Whittington, Secretary; Bucky Larmore, Treasurer; Lee Ogburn, President.

The Class

"Come on, Towson. We want some action!"

The Sophomore year is a year in transition. During this first year in high school, the student must assume new responsibilities and work in a more competitive atmosphere. The new academic and social surroundings demand that he make a quick adjustment.

To help unify their class, sophomores sponsored a dance featuring "The Chevelles" and participated in the Canned Foods Drive.

Core of Activities

Tickets stream in for the "Snowball."

This was a year of innovation for the S.C.A. Initiating a new policy of school-wide election of representatives, the S.C.A., from the beginning, was assured of strong internal support. The institution of parliamentary procedure brought order and dignity into the meeting. Also, the S.C.A. used homeroom periods that made each student a real part of the organization. This, combined with the strong, effective leadership of the officers, and the guidance of sponsors Mrs. Elizabeth Beck and Mr. Dennis Blizzard made a truly unique year for the S.C.A.

To Study, Serve, and Lead

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is to the scholar what the gridiron is to the football star; it offers him an outlet for personal satisfaction and prestige. This year, 102 students either maintained or achieved the necessary Honor Society requirements. Scholarship is not the only criterion. The organization demands excellence in character, leadership, and service.

This year, Talisman has sought to make the students aware of the world outside the classroom. Coverage of a Ku Klux Klan rally and lectures by William Buckley and John Stormer exemplify this attempt. The staff also instituted a "Downtown" series to orient students to places of interest in Baltimore.

Fiftieth Anniversary

Celebrating Sidelights' fiftieth year of publication, this year's staff planned the theme around the passage of time. The 1966 edition features the school seal on the cover, plus gold half-tone pictures and sketches on inside pages. Under the advisorship of Miss Cora Dunn and Mr. David Rust, the staff worked from September to May in order to meet deadlines for the various sections. The essential jobs were to lay out pages, write captions, and crop pictures. Jane Wright and Pam Wolfe designed the gold and black art sketches. During the year, the Business Staff held a patron drive, a car wash, and a bake sale to gain funds for the publication of the book. All of these campaigns were met with the typical Towson enthusiasm.

Sue Carl tells Carol Alt, "Move the crop guide down so you don't leave out his feet."

"And a-one, and a-two, and a . . ."

Under the direction of Mr. Neal Sipe, the instrumental groups have enlivened many of Towson's activities. In the fall, the band performed for soccer games and played in the Halloween parade in Towson. During the winter, the orchestra performed at the Christmas program, and 12 Towson students participated in the county orchestra. At the end of winter, the instrumentalists finally left the stage basement and took over their new quarters in the music suite above the cafeteria. In spring, the Spring Band Concert featured three soloists and two student conductors. Completing an active year was an assembly in May at which the band performed.

The Choral groups had an active year as they participated in numerous school and community programs. During the year, the Madrigals and Choir sang at Loch Raven Junior High, the Board of Education, and Trinity Episcopal Church. In addition, they performed in a special Christmas program at One Charles Center in Baltimore. On January 29, the Choir took part in a patriotic program with the Baltimore Symphony. Choir I participated in the County Choral Festival in the spring.

The annual Christmas program, entitled "The Sounds of Christmas," featured two guest soloists from New York. Selections from My Fair Lady were the basis for "The Sounds of Spring", a choral concert presented on May 5.

On With The Show

This year, the Masquers, Towson's drama group, performed for English classes and the general public. The Sister's Tragedy, The Midnight Ghost, and The Final Dress Rehearsal were three of their major productions. In November, the Masquers staged Our Town by Thornton Wilder. This popular three-act play was presented on two nights by a double cast. Other productions included works by modern playwrights such as Edward Albee and Sidney Pinter. Albee's play, The Sandbox, was performed at both Towson's "Little Theater" and the County Drama Festival.

The junior varsity bench watches intensely as their cohorts run up the score.

Although Mr. James Farrier's surprising Varsity Soccer squad dropped the Western Division Championship game to Dulaney 2-1, they compiled a creditable 7-2-1 slate in league competition. The Generals managed to put 25 goals past opposing goalies while the opposition pumped only 11 past Page Kimball.

JUNIOR VARSITY SOCCER—Row 1: S. Abendroth, D. Lane, C. Wichmann, J. Skeen, J. Conner, B. Schmidt. Row 2: B. Gibson, B. Eickelberg, R. Raynolds, B. French, B. Bolth, G. Ford. Row 3: B. Fritz, Manager; T. Lynch, Manager; P. Price, B. Kelly, K. Davis, J. Walker, Mr. Stouffer, Coach; P. Garner, Manager.

Starting off the season with three wins, the varsity field hockey team looked like it was headed for the Western Division Championship. But defeat came at the hands of Milford and Hereford, both 3-2. Catonsville, last year's division champions and this year's first place team, was the team to beat. And Towson did it! 5-1 for a climactic ending of the 1965 hockey season.

Joan Stevens has a clear field ahead against Dulaney rivals.

Hustling Harriers

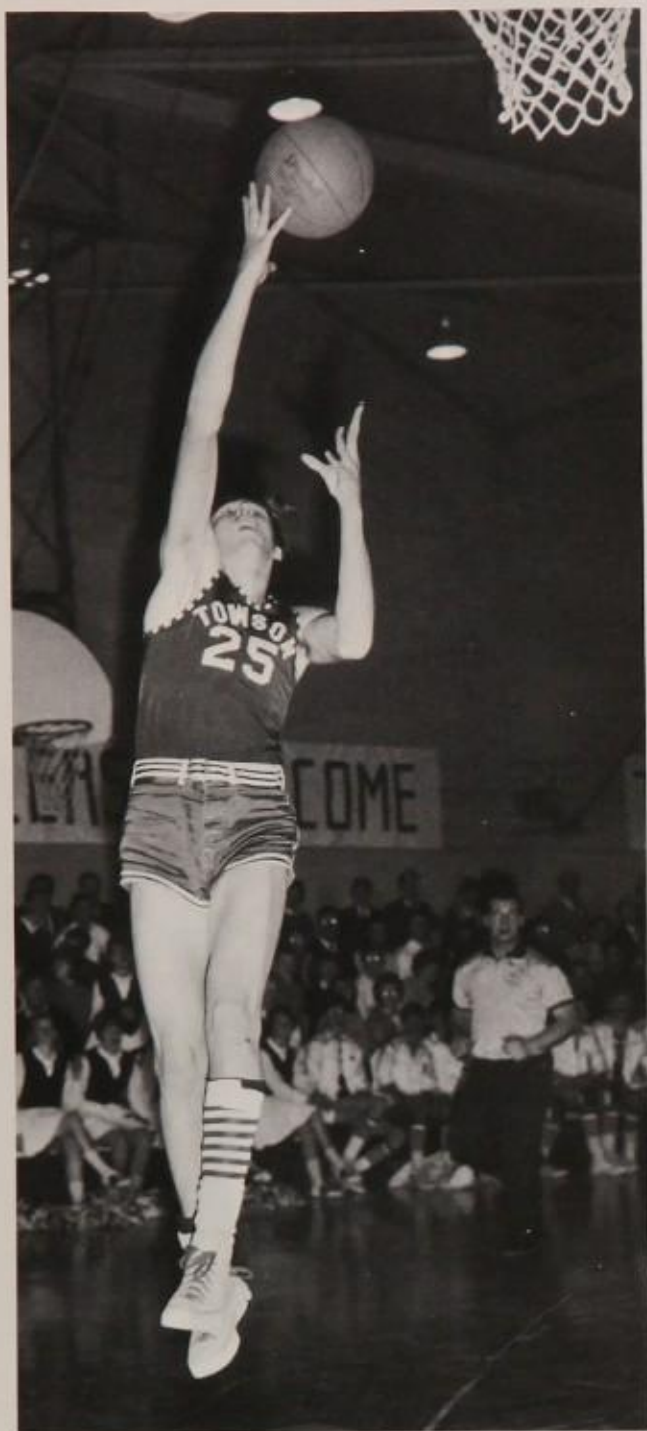

Running their way to a satisfactory league record, the varsity "A" Harriers finished seventh in the County Championships and a reputable thirteenth in the state finals. In regular season competition, the "A" squad pulled one first, two seconds, and one third. However, the team dropped off the pace set by last year's 8-1 runners and finished eighth in the annual "Spiked Shoe Meet." In all of the meets, seniors Tom Bolan and Greg Seward proved themselves the top two General Harriers.

For the third time in four years, the Varsity Basketball team attempted to cop the class AA State Championship. By finishing first in Division II and defeating Perry Hall for the County Championship, Coach Walker's boys earned the much heralded trip to College Park. The exceptional determination and team-spirit of the quintet were not enough to carry the Generals past the strong High Point squad that upset Towson in the first semi-final contest, 56-45.

Ed Roth and Lou "Frizzle" Davis led the squad in scoring while Roth and Jerry Anderson added the needed board control. The varsity quintet compiled a 13-1 record in league competition and a 17-4 overall.

Words of advice from Coach Marjorie Stup.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

*Good luck

Donna*

Donna Anderson grabs the ball for the j.v. six.

Winter means basketball at Towson. Keeping this tradition in mind, the girls' Varsity Basketball team, coached by Miss Marjorie Stup, battled its way to a 5-3 record and second place. The low point of the season was the 63-18 loss to Catonsville. High scorers Mary Pat Connolly with 133 and Bonnie Peverill with 79 points led the squad to victory throughout the season.

Keep the Pressure On!

Mr. Farrier's Varsity Wrestling team, experiencing a year of rebuilding, did not come close to last year's spectacular record, which proved to be one of the best in Towson's history. Having many inexperienced grapplers, the squad could only salvage one win in seven outings. After Mike Winston sustained an injury early in the season, the weight of the team rested on the 145-pound representative Page Kimball. Kimball was the only consistent winner throughout the season.

Some top junior varsity prospects will join varsity returnees next year in hopes of compiling a victorious slate once again.

Stick Picks

Greg Morkovin hustles after loose ball as Catonsville opponent comes up quickly.

Faster preparation in the earlier weeks of practice enabled the Varsity Lacrosse team to avenge last year's 14-2 loss to Calvert Hall by feeding the Cardinals an 8-3 defeat. The first win was followed by a 17-4 victory over Archbishop Curly. Coach William Thomas, satisfied with the ensuing 4-1 victory over Dulaney, continued to stress the importance of the fundamentals. Throughout the season, Doug Fry, Joe Nichols, Page Kimball, and goalie Steve Wah paced the stickmen.

The Junior Varsity team, coached by Mr. John O'Connor, also started a good season with four successive wins.

Mary Pat Connolly awaits Fran Southerland's set up.

Although this year's volleyball team lacked height, it had an abundance of ability and spirit. Coached by Miss Alice Behlmer, the girls opened the season with a 74-17 victory over Pikesville. Hard serving proved to be the strongest point, as Bonnie Peverill, Carol Serini, Mary Pat Connolly, and Fran Southerland all perfected the formidable overhand serve.

Keep Your Eye On The Ball . . .

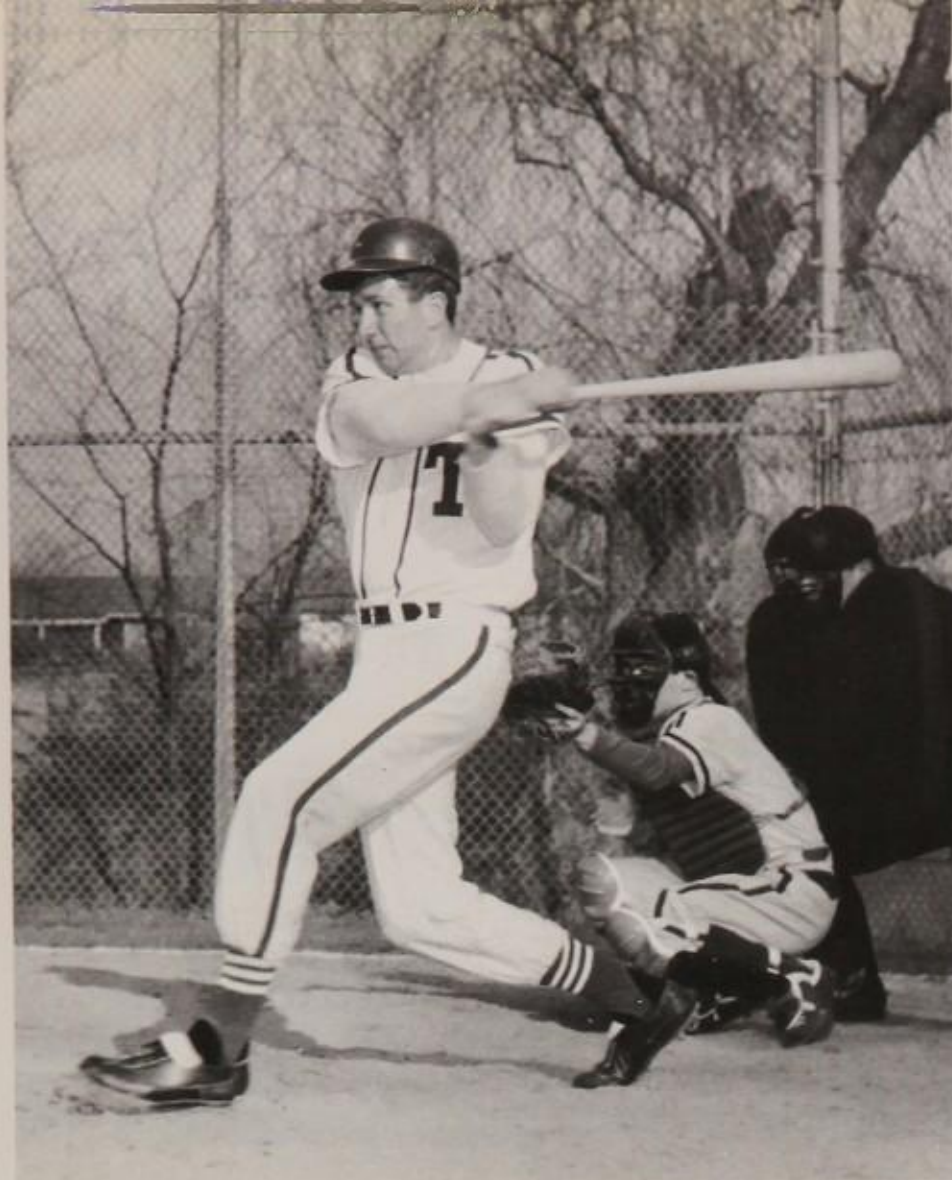

Mr. Carlton Command's Varsity Baseball team had trouble getting started as rain, cold, and wet grounds continually forced postponement of games. The young team did not boast of their power but rather of their pinch hits and speed. Lou Davis and Jim Diffenderfer teamed with last year's returnees Gene Hiser, Dick Wiseman, and Bob Edlund to form the nucleus of the squad.

Mr. James Morrell worked his junior varsity boys hard in hopes of turning out some future varsity starters next year.

Strike 'Em Out

Coached by Miss Susan Beeler, the softball squad faced a challenging season after it dropped its first game to Dundalk, 10-3. With only one varsity returnee and four sophomores, the team concentrated primarily on rebuilding and improving its fielding weaknesses. Lynn Yates, a sophomore, proved an important part of the lineup with her outstanding pitching ability. Returnees trained this year will provide a firmer foundation for next year's team.

TRACK AND FIELD

Sawdust and Cinders

The Varsity thinclads, coached by Mr. Charles Stouffer, came out of the "starting blocks" at a very slow pace. The Generals' victorious hopes were shadowed when they lost the first three meets. Although the team did not fare outstandingly well, the track and field team sported some excellent individual performers. Tom Bolan, Ron Smith, and Greg Seward led the cindermen, while Dick Rhudy and Jack Hill were more than adequate in the field events.

Towson's Golf team, coached by Mr. Daniel Drigan, continued to uphold the school's established name in the Baltimore County golf circuit. Holding their matches at the nearby Country Club of Maryland, the linksmen were led by Wayne Trout and Galen Beck. Mr. Drigan has some promising underclassmen on this year's squad.

24th Anniversary

THE ENSIGN C. MARKLAND KELLY, JR. MEMORIAL POST #174 of the AMERICAN LEGION was formed in his honor, to perpetuate his name and keep alive the AMERICAN ideals for which he so willingly gave his life.

To this end the Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Memorial Post #174 has been active in many programs and activities, a few of which are listed below.

- American Flag—Educational programs for flag etiquette and American Flags presented to Boy and Girl Scout Troops.
- Athletics—Junior baseball, basketball and lacrosse teams sponsored. Lacrosse trophies for High Schools and Colleges. A baseball field is maintained in the Northwood area. Annual Sports Award presented to an outstanding coach in the State of Maryland.
- Baltimore City Zoo—Gifts of (11) Polar bears, Jenny the elephant and most recently the Sardinian donkeys, Ginger Bread and Cupcake.
- Boys and Girls State—(8) High School Juniors each year sponsored.
- Boy Scouts—Over 18,000 Boy Scout calendars presented annually to schools, troops and Cub Packs.
- Drum and Bugle Corps—Sponsoring St. Mary's Drum and Bugle Corps and Honor Guards in American Legion competition each year.
- Essay and Oratorical Contests—Sponsoring contests in all schools interested.
- Open Shutter—Maintain film library for "shut-in" institutions as well as providing live entertainment and refreshments as occasion arises.
- Scholarships—McDonogh School and Baltimore College of Commerce.
- Memorial Services—Open to the public, each year a Memorial Day Service is held at Loudon Park Cemetery on May 30th for all who have made the supreme sacrifice for their country. Watch for announcement in the papers.

Since its inception, the Post has been interested in the community; and many things have been done to promote its welfare. Special credit should be given to the ENSIGN C. MARKLAND KELLY, JR. MEMORIAL FOUNDATION, INC. for their financial assistance. The result—many of the programs are a reality rather than a dream.

As a certain M & C scholar once said, "In my opinion, our discussion of Unidentified Flying Objects is impertinent to our study of the Versailles Treaty." However, you've been tempting me to make several reprisals in here—"Miss Sherman, move your desk against the wall!" Now settle down and relax and Monday we'll view that film we were supposed to see last Thursday. R . . . I . . . N . . . G . . . ! Only early bus students may leave.
